

The Secret Ingredient

This month the focus is the final component of The EASE™ Formula for Success: Excitement. Review the first three components in our archives.

"Striving to be successful? We all are. The real secret, the # 1 ingredient: excitement." Michael Morrow

So you're excited, now what? How do you ensure that your spirit of excitement is not only felt by your clients but transferred to your clients? Imagine, clients who are excited to do business with you - clients who are excited about the services you offer!

We have lots of exciting ideas, in this issue we will share one of our finest! An idea that you can implement today, that you can pick up, touch, hold and feel, and will make a difference in your business right now.

Here is a real idea that real Advisors have used on real clients, in the real world, to generate results.

A Success Story

A Financial Advisor arrived at a retirement party of a client with a newspaper but not just any newspaper - an authentic REAL newspaper from the day the client was born! Sound simple? It was.

The result: he opened great, new accounts with targeted clients but more importantly, he connected with everyone at the party on a very personal level that day. The Advisor demonstrated extreme forethought and was seen by everyone as thoughtful and competent. Sound simple?...it was!

How does this idea score based on the criteria of a great marketing idea that gets results?

- This unique idea screams impact
- You will set yourself apart as someone who really cares about their clients, thus lending credibility
- In most cases the historic newspaper will become their "coffee table book"; a marketing idea with a long shelf life

An investment or an expense? This idea costs approximately $50 but you can be sure that it will pay for itself many times over.

Action Thought

The Best $50 you will ever spend!

Order your own historic newspaper from the day you were born. This tool will serve as a great conversation piece but more importantly a powerful example to illustrate what the markets have done over your lifetime. Your presentations will be much more compelling when you use this tool as an example of growth and compounding.

The perfect meeting-room marketing piece.

Now that's exciting!
